

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

DESCRIPTIVE PRICE LIST AND ORD

62.69

OF THE C-V NURSERY BLACKWELL, OKLA.

We do a mail order business, and by making out your own order, you save 30 per cent and have a better chance to know who you are dealing with. All fruits listed in this thing listed gives general satisfaction. If planting in hardpan or clay subsoil, dynamite weeks before planting, by so doing it gives the elements a better chance to act, as well. Please state how shipped, by freight, express or parcels post, otherwise we will use CASH accompanies the order, we will include some extra shrubs, bulbs, etc. Remittance order, draft or private check.

Ship by

RECEIVED
1919

No. |
Wnt'd |

- Apple, 2 year, 4 to 5 feet, first class
- Yellow Transparent, best early good eating, cooking
- Red June, an old time favorite.....
- C. E. White, a regular and prolific bearer, a little subject to blight.....

FALL APPLES

- Maiden's Blush, old time favorite
- Baily Sweet, one of the best sweet apples
- Grimes Golden, nothing better in its time of ripening.....
- Jonathan, one of the best general purpose varieties

WINTER AND LATE KEEPERS

- York Imperial, yellowish red, good size and keeper.....
- Staymans Wine Sap, much better than the old style Wine Sap.....
- Mammoth Black Twig, good size and keeper, shy bearer.....
- Ben Davis, comes in on the home stretch
- Gano, Improved B. Davis
- Delicious, one of the best in quality

We have a number of other varieties not listed.

Crab apples, 2-year, first class, should be included in every orchard

- Florence, one of the best of all crabs, prolific bearer
- Whitney, No. 20, largest of all crabs
- PEACH, 1 year, 4 to 5 ft., first class, plant on well drained soil.....
- Mayflower, the earliest of all, a money maker
- Sneed, next in ripening, good quality
- Amsden or Alexander, a red early peach, well known.....
- Carman, one of the hardiest, constant bearer, creamy white.....
- Greensboro, one of the best all around peaches known, red.....
- Champion, one of the best for home use, white with red cheek.....
- Elberta, large yellow, good market, quality poor.....
- Belle of Georgia, none better, creamy white, red cheek, very sweet.....
- Chinese cling, one of the best and largest clings, white, red cheek.....
- Heath cling, an old time favorite, some times blisters
- Henrietta, or Levey's Late, late yellow cling, very fine
- Japan Blood Dwarf, a dwarf peach of fine quality, plant near house.....
- Plums, 2 year, 4 to 5 ft., first class, plant on well drained soil.....
- Red June, one of the best, early, good size and quality.....
- Abundance, very sweet, good size, tree rather short lived.....
- Burbank, good any place, home or market, given to over bearing.....
- Satsuma, a prune plum, very fine, red to the pit, fine for canning....

American Types of Plums

- Pools Pride, medium size, quality same as Wild Goose
- Hawkeye, good size and bearer, splendid for home or market
- Pears, 2 years, 4 to 5 ft., first class, plant in deep rich soil.....
- Keiffer, good grower and bearer, poor quality
- Seckle sometimes called sugar pear, early, melting quality
- Clapp's Favorite, one of the best
- Duchess, a dwarf, early bearer, of good size and quality
- Cherries, should be planted in well drained soil 16 feet apart.
- Cherries, 2 year, 4 to 5 ft., first class
- Cherries, 1 year, 3 1-2 to 4 ft., first class
- Dye House, a great and regular bearer, red, fair quality
- Early Richmond, called Ey. May, light red, very juicy
- Montmorency, one of the best, large dark red, two weeks later.....
- Wragg, a splendid late variety.....
- Compass, cross between plum and cherry, bears at a young age, fine.....
- Apricots, 2 year, 4 to 5 ft., first class, grow well in most locations and bear heavily
- Apricots, 1 year, 3 1-2 to 4 ft., first class
- Early Golden, medium size, of good quality
- Royal, large, good quality, ripens two weeks later
- Moor Park, good quality, some seasons a little tender
- Nectarines, cross between peach and plum, hardy, a fine fruit.....
- Nectarines, 1 year, 4 to 5 ft., and should be planted in every orchard.....
- Quince 2 year, 4 ft., plant in rich moist soil, in the garden.....
- Champion, large size, good bearer
- Orange, more round, little later, high flavor
- Houghton Gooseberry, the cue for middle west, heavy bearer, 2 year.....
- Strawberries, should have a place in every garden as they require little space, plant in spring, in rows 1 foot apart, rows 3 ft., apart, varieties listed are perfect bloomers.....

No.
Wnt'd

- Excelsior, earliest and best
- Senator Dunlap, next in ripening, very sweet
- Klondike, good size, fine for market
- Parker Earl, late, extra large, stocky grower
- Blackberries, should be planted 2 ft., apart in rows, 4 ft., wide.....
- Early Harvest, early and a prolific bearer, poor quality.....
- Erie, larger and much better, two weeks later
- Snyder, old time favorite, all plants are grown from root cuts.....
- Raspberries, require good soil and cultivation, and by planting either of the varieties listed, you can have plenty of fruit
- Cumberland, black, good size, fine quality
- Kansas, black, good size, fine quality, a little later
- Grapes, one of the easiest and best fruits grown, plant in rows north and south, in good well drained soil
- Moore's Early, best early black, strong 2 year plants.....
- Worden, early, fair quality, black, strong 2 year plants.....
- Concord, poorest of all black grapes on account of climate.....
- Niagara, best white, splendid for trellis, 2 year strong plants.....
- Delaware, best red, very sweet, compact bunch, 2 year strong plants.....
- Currants, only one variety, that does well, Improved Black
- H. T. Roses, those that bloom from May to frost in the fall, these are strong plants, blooming age, and best colors
- Falduin, or Helen Gould, bright red
- Maman Cochet, white
- Maman Cochet, pink
- Mad. F. Kruger, copper yellow.....
- Etoile De Lyon, creamy yellow.....
- Meteor, dark red
- Clotilde Soupert, shell pink
- Baby Rambler, same color as crimson Rambler, grows in bush form.....
- Climbing Roses and Vines, blooming age, strong plants
- Crimson Rambler, King of climbing roses
- Dorothy Perkins, beautiful foliaged and flowers, no mildew
- Japan Bedder, for covering wall, cemetery planting, very hardy.....
- Chinese Wisteria, very hardy, keeps sun out of windows and porches.....
- Bignonia or Trumpet Vine, very hardy
- Hall's Japan Honey Suckle, evergreen, splendid for porches, white and yellow flowers, very fragrant... ..
- Boston Ivy
- Clematis, in varieties and colors
- Shrubs, blooming age, strong plants, all very hardy
- Almond Dbl., flowering, blooms in early spring
- Altheas Dbl., colors red, white and blue
- Hydrangea Pan., Grand'fla., fine, very hardy
- Japan Quince, white and red, blooms in early spring
- Lilac Persian, white and purple, very hardy
- Lilac Dbl., tree form, all colors, very fine
- Snowballs, a bush of great beauty when in bloom, very hardy
- Spirea, Prunafolia, white, dbl., first Spirea to bloom in spring
- Spirea, Vanhoutte, one of the best
- Spirea, Billiardi, purple, remains in bloom a long time
- Mock Orange
- Shade Trees, all varieties, in stock, 4 to 5 ft.
- Shade Trees, all varieties, in stock, 5 to 6 ft.
- Shade Trees, all varieties, in stock, 6 to 8 ft.
- Ornamental Trees, for the lawn
- Catalpa Bungei or Umbrella Tree, 5 1-2 to 6 ft., very hardy
- Teas Weeping Mulberry, best and hardiest of all weeping trees
- Chrysanthemum Peach, fine, very hardy
- Tamarix Plumosa, beautiful plume-like foliage, hardy
- Russian Olive, silvery foliage, fragrant blooms, very rugged
- Hedge Plants, of which the following is the best of all
- Berberis Thunbergi, very hardy, 2 year strong plants, 15 in.
- Evergreens, in variety, all hardy, 50c, 75c and $1.00 per foot.
- Berkman's Dwarf Golden, one of the best arbor vitae known
- Chinese Pym', arbo., a rapid grower
- Euxus or Tree Fox, a very pretty evergreen of dwarf habit.....
- Seedlings, 1 year plant, 4 by 4 ft., for grove or timber belt
- Catalpa Speciosa, 16 to 20 in.
- Russian Mulberry, 18 to 24 in.
- Black Locust, 18 to 24 in.
- Miscellaneous
- Rhubarb, large varieties, plant deep, mulch on top
- Asparagus, plant deep, cultivate well first season
- Dew Berries, of vining habit, do well in most localities
- Horse Radish, should be in every garden
- Peonies, in variety, all colors, should be in every yard
- Hardy Perennials, in stock, write for prices
- Hik-em or Tree Paint, 75c qt., $2.50 per gal.

Explanation of Prices—If the number wanted is nearer 10 than 1, 10 price rule; price rules; and so on.

NAME

ADDRESS